Africans Protest Ghana Student's Death Friday

MOSCOW (AP)—Several hundred students from Ghana and other African nations stormed into Red Square today right under Premier Khrushchev's office windows, fought with police and tried to break into the Kremlin.

The students said they were protesting the fatal stabbing of a student from Ghana by a Russian last Friday.

UN Session Ends In New Cold War Lull

Johnson Eases Body's Anxiety Over JFK Death

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly ended its 18th session Tuesday night, a three-month meeting marked by a new lull in the cold war and a new peak in African attacks on segregation and colonialism.

The session opened with delegates heartened by the atmosphere of East-West harmony and ended with many apprehensive over what effect President John F. Kennedy's assassination might have on the world.

This anxiety was eased somewhat by President Johnson's assurance to the assembly Tuesday that he would carry on Kennedy's international policies.

Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko hailed Johnson's speech as "a positive approach to world problems."

The "spirit of Moscow," which set the harmonious tone of debate on disarmament, outer space and other East-West issues, resulted in a number of unanimous votes. However, none of the decisions could be described as far-reaching.

On the broad question of general disarmament no advances were made, but the ticklish problem was turned over to the Geneva negotiators with the blessings of East and West.

Allen Is Released On $315 Bond

A cash bond of $315 was posted with the Sedalia police court for the release of Carl Allen, 37, Route 2, Lincoln, Tuesday afternoon and another bond of $50 posted with the Circuit Court on an appeal case for Allen from Police Court.

Allen's appeal bond furnished by the Bradshaw Bonding Co., on the appeal of a previous case was withdrawn by the company's agent Willard Morris, making it necessary to furnish another bond.

The cash bond for Allen was posted at police headquarters by his sister, Mrs. Lizzie Smith, and the bond at the Circuit Clerk's office was posted by Lizzie and Carzie Smith, after which he was released.

Allen was arrested early last Friday morning along with Milford Fisher, 234 North Randolph, at Third and Engineer after police received a complaint from K. E. May, 2508 Stephenson Avenue, with the Natkin Co., who had reported two men had followed him to the Natkin warehouse on Missouri Pacific property, cursing and disturbing his peace.

After their arrest they were taken to police headquarters. Allen resisted arrest and in a scuffle Patrolman Albert Blankenship suffered a broken right hand. Allen had been carrying a .22 caliber rifle which had bullets in the magazine and which he refused to give up.

He was charged with resisting arrest and four other charges were filed against him the same as were filed against his companion. Fisher furnished a $165 bond on his four charges while Allen had an additional $150 bond to post for resisting arrest, making the total bond money for him at $315. Allen was remanded to the city jail until Tuesday afternoon.

Their cases are scheduled for hearing before Judge U. L. Howerton at police court, Dec. 20.

Fourth Adopted Child Gift for Local Couple

AS SHE SAT in the church and heard again the familiar Christmas story of the angel, Gabriel, bringing the word to Mary of the child she would have, then Earleen Dick knew that the baby she and her husband, Bill, were seeking for adoption was ready for them.

This would be the fourth child that Bill and Earleen Dick, 2808 South Kentucky, opened their hearts and home to, and now Earleen could hardly wait to get home to call the Welfare office to see if the baby was ready.

"I feel there is a baby for us," she said with excitement in her voice and a prayer in her heart. The man at the Welfare office was a little taken back. "How did you know?" he asked, "I just got the letter."

Then he told her he would write about the baby, but Earleen couldn't wait.

"Let's call right now," she said, and they did.

The appointment was for Dec. 13, and they went after Earleen's "living doll."

She had no way of knowing that they would get the baby before Christmas—that was just a wish. But everytime Bill would try to find out what she wanted for Christmas she would tell him she just wanted the baby—that was all—just as she had probably told her mother when she was a little girl that she wanted a doll more than anything.

But Laura Marie—the Marie for her mother, Mrs. Earl Paxton, for Earleen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Paxton, 710 West Second—is not only her new Mommy's Christmas present, she is a wonderful Christmas gift for the entire family.

They had expected her to be a little older, a little closer to the age of Carrie Lynn, who is four, but she is eight months old, and nobody is disappointed.

Bill is thrilled because he likes

the little ones, and this one he thinks is a real doll.

Really, the adoption wasn't final for a few days, but Earleen couldn't wait until it was. It is Christmas, and each year Bill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dick have a big dinner for their children and grandchildren at Goldberg's and the dinner was to be on Sunday, Dec. 15, with 38 of the Dick clan from everywhere. Earleen and Bill simply had to have the new baby to show the family. And so Laura Marie was the center of attraction at the big Christmas party —she is the center of attraction everywhere because she is always so glad to see everybody—she knows no strangers—everybody is a friend—or a relative.

The only thing was Earleen wasn't prepared for her new daughter—she had no clothes ready—but as the word got around that Laura Marie had arrived with no wardrobe everybody began coming in bringing clothes of all kinds—and she is now about the best dressed little girl in town.

It was indeed a big evening (Please turn to Page 4, Col. 8)

E-Tax Passed By Voters In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The elements and the date were against it, but Kansas Citizens gave a large and favorable vote Tuesday to a city tax that will cost them 50 cents for every $100 they earn.

About one-third of the city's 202,000 registered voters turned out in cold, inclement weather and gave the earnings tax a vote of 42,703 for and 25,635 against in unofficial returns.

Some observers had thought holding an election Dec. 17 might involve considerable political risk because of voters' preoccupation with Christmas.

Passage of the tax was more a personal victory for Mayor Irlus W. Davis than anyone else. He stumped the town telling of the city's desperate financial plight. The estimated $6 million the tax will raise each year, he said, is desperately needed to prevent further deterioration of streets and buildings and necessary municipal services.

He pressed for an election at this time—rather than later—because the city would be missing half a million dollars a month in revenue in the interval.

First to benefit from the tax probably will be the city's once-magnificent elm trees. Some 120,000 of them are dying because the park department lacks funds.

Youths Waive Hearing On Burglary Charges

Three young Sedalia boys charged with second degree burglary and stealing over $50 in connection with four recent home burglaries waived a preliminary hearing in Magistrate Court Wednesday morning.

Judge Armstrong bound their cases over for trial in Circuit Court with their appearance there scheduled for Feb. 3.

The youths are Bert Sheridan, 17, D-21 Bomarc; Tom Grey, 17, C-11 Saturn; and Don Jonson, 18, 1302 South Kentucky.

All of the youths have been released on $1,000 bonds. Bonds for Sheridan and Grey were arranged through the Bradshaw Bonding Company, Willard Morris, agent, and bond for Jonson was posted by Chris Roose.

KENNEDY COIN — The new 50c piece bearing the likeness of John F. Kennedy will look much like the commemorative medal pictured above, which was sculptured by Gilroy Roberts, chief engraver of the U.S. Mint. The half dollar will carry the words, LIBERTY, IN GOD WE TRUST and the year of coinage on its face, along with the portrait of the late president. On the reverse side with the eagle will be the words, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, HALF DOLLAR and E PLURIBUS UNUM.

Money Supply For Baker Probed Into

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators said today they are trying to ferret out where Robert G. Baker got the thousands of dollars in cash a witness testified he kept in his Senate office.

To help them, President Johnson signed an executive order permitting the Rules Committee, which is carrying on the inquiry, to examine the tax files of Baker, Johnson's protege when the President was Senate Democratic leader.

Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., said he regarded the testimony about the money as "the big point" at the committee's first public hearings Tuesday in its investigation of Baker's business dealings and allegations of conflict of interest.

Baker, 35, resigned Oct. 7 from his $19,600 post as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority after questions were raised about whether his outside interests conflicted with his official duties or involved other improprieties.

The testimony that Baker kept large amounts of cash in his office came from Mrs. Gertrude C. Novak, a trim, blonde widow of a contractor who was Baker's partner in the building of the Carousel Motel at Ocean City, Md.

She told of getting thousands of dollars from Baker for deposit in the Carousel's account, to meet construction costs and operating expenses.

Sen. B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., the committee chairman, said no more public hearings will be held until after the Christmas holidays.

Camdenton Bond Issue Voted Down Tuesday

CAMDENTON, Mo. (AP)—A $945,000 bond issue for extension of facilities was voted down Tuesday by the R-3 school district. The money would have been used for a new high school here and extension of an elementary school at Osage Beach.

The vote was 824 in favor and 704 against, with a two-thirds majority required.

Party Plans Save Elderly Woman's Life

FREDONIA, Kan. (AP)—Mrs. Frank Fitzmorris, 76, usually doesn't celebrate her birthday, Dec. 14, because it's so close to Christmas.

But her daughter - in - law planned a surprise party last Saturday, and shortly before noon her son, Morton, called to pick her up.

He found his mother clinging, semi-conscious, to a door jamb in the living room. A gas heater in the room was turned on, but not lighted.

Mrs. Fitzmorris, recovering in a hospital, recalled rising early Saturday to light the heater, but nothing after that.

First Meeting In 500 Years Of 2 Churches

World Orthodox Leader to Meet With Pope Paul

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—The spiritual leader of world Orthodoxy, Patriarch Athenagoras I, will meet with Pope Paul VI during the pontiff's pilgrimage to the Holy Land next month, it was announced today.

It will be the first encounter between the head of the Roman Catholic Church and an Orthodox patriarch in more than five centuries.

Announcement of the historic encounter between Pope Paul and the American-born Athenagoras came from Theodosius VI, patriarch of the Eastern Orthodox Church of Antioch (Syria) and the entire East. The meeting will take place in Jerusalem.

The announcement followed a report from officials in New Delhi, India, that Pope Paul had accepted an invitation to visit India for his second break with the tradition against papal travel abroad. The pilgrimage to the Holy Land Jan. 4-6 is the first time in 150 years a Pope has left Italy.

The last Pope to meet with an Orthodox patriarch was Pope Eugene IV, who met Patriarch Joseph II at the Council of Florence in 1439.

Theodosius described the upcoming meeting between Pope Paul and Patriarch Athenagoras as one of "courtesy" rather than a formal conference on Christian unity.

But he added, "It comes at a time when all Eastern and Western leaders of Christianity are looking forward to the cherished hope of Christian unity."

Athenagoras had proposed a summit meeting of all major Christian religions during the Pope's trip.

The Eastern Church split from Rome in the great schism of 1054.

The announcement by Theodosius came only hours after the report of plans for a precedent-shattering papal visit to the Far East.

New Contract Ends Airline Strike Threat

WASHINGTON (AP)—The threat of a strike that could have shut down United Airlines during the Christmas holidays ended early today when the airline and the AFL-CIO Machinists Union agreed on a new contract.

George L. Watkins, Machinists vice president, immediately telegraphed the 38 locals at United bases across the nation calling off the strike that had been set for just after midnight tonight.

A union spokesman said the settlement was more liberal than the contract negotiated last week with Braniff Airways. This agreement with Braniff had been hailed by the union as a "major breakthrough" in airline negotiations.

The machinists said they hope to have the 13,000 union members who work for United complete voting on their new contract before Sunday.

The new United package calls for a 39-cent-an-hour wage increase in three stages. When the final increase takes effect on Jan. 1, 1965, United mechanics will earn $3.52 an hour.

A Machinists spokesman said this is the same maximum Braniff mechanics achieved, but United's wages were lower to begin with.

This tops the recommendations of a presidential emergency board for a 36 cent an hour increase for most employees and 30 cents for the remainder.

Death Brush By McNamara

Defense Chief's Plane Narrowly Misses 'Crash'

PARIS (AP)—A plane carrying U.S. Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and members of his staff narrowly missed a collision with a civilian airliner in a fog at Paris' Orly Airport today.

McNamara's U.S. Air Force pilot, Capt. Meredith Sutton, abandoned his attempt to take off for South Viet Nam and braked his big K135 jet transport when the passenger plane came in for a landing in front of him.

The tires on the American plane blew out and the big transport jolted to a halt about 500 feet from the end of the long runway.

Assistant Defense Secretary Arthur G. Sylvester, who was aboard, said no one was hurt.

Sylvester gave this account of the incident:

"Visibility was very bad. The pilot could not see the end of the runway. We got a clearance from the tower to takeoff. Apparently the passenger plane got its signals mixed and tried to land."

"We were rolling down the runway nearing the point of no return when Capt. Sutton suddenly aborted the flight. His quick reaction saved our lives. I'm sure. Another moment and it would have been too late."

There was no immediate explanation of the mixup from the civilian controlled airport tower.

The defense secretary had attended the annual winter meeting of the NATO Ministerial Council, which ended Tuesday. He is going to Saigon for his second on-the-spot assessment in three months of the Vietnamese and American fight against the Communist Guerrillas.

McNamara and his staff planned to take another U.S. military plane.

President Johnson is known to be gravely concerned that the successes of the Viet Cong Communists have continued since a military coup overthrew President Ngo Dinh Diem a month after McNamara's last visit. Since the military's assumption of power Nov. 1, guerrilla attacks have risen sharply, with heavy losses in men and equipment by South Vietnamese forces.

McNamara was reported to have decided on the trip to investigate whether the military junta can reverse the pattern.

LBJ Willing To Confer With Nikita

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson said today he is willing to meet with any world leaders — obviously including Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev — any time he believes such conferences would be "fruitful and productive."

Johnson was asked at a news conference to discuss his attitude toward a possible early meeting with Khrushchev. He replied with the statement of willingness to engage in promising talks — a number of which he already has arranged with leaders of West Germany, Britain, Italy, Canada and Mexico.

Reporters were summoned to Johnson's office without notice for the news conference. During the half-hour session, the President also covered these major points:

—Thomas Mann, the new assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs, will also serve as a special assistant to Johnson. The President said Mann would coordinate all Latin-American policy, and declared, "We expect to speak with one voice on all matters affecting this hemisphere."

Seeks 'Lost' Husband

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A 21-year-old woman from Regina, Saskatchewan, is looking for her husband.

Mrs. Julie Peart reported she and her husband, John, driving different vehicles, became separated about midnight on U.S. 71.

She said her husband was driving a 1963 Fargo pickup truck. Mrs. Peart reported that one of them took a wrong turn somewhere, while they were looking for a motel.

First Bullet Not 'Serious' JFK Wound

Autopsy Findings Point to Second Shot As Fatal One

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy might have survived the first bullet to strike him in the Dallas assassination, a source familiar with autopsy findings reports; it was the second bullet which proved fatal.

This source said Tuesday night the first bullet fired by Kennedy's assassin struck the President in the back and did not damage any vital organs. He said it was not likely to have caused death.

This account of Kennedy's wounds differed sharply from earlier reports provided by physicians who ministered to the President shortly after he was shot Nov. 22.

Senate Fight On Aid Funds Developing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The foreign aid program headed into a new Senate fight today.

The stage for a new round of debate was set when the Senate Appropriations Committee Tuesday approved a measure carrying $3,299,500,000 in new appropriations for overseas assistance — as compared with the $2,801,700,000 the House voted Monday.

The Senate group also dropped a House amendment that would prohibit the government from guaranteeing private financing of any sales of U.S. grain to Communist bloc countries.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield planned to bring up the bill late today under a unanimous consent agreement in the hope of getting final congressional action before this weekend's Christmas holiday adjournment.

But other proponents of the program conceded there was a possibility of further cuts before the Senate sends the measure to a conference with the House for ironing out differences between Senate and House versions.

$10,000 Per Month From Gasoline Tax For City, County

Missouri's five cents per gallon gasoline tax is bringing approximately $10,000 per month to Sedalia and Pettis County for street and road work, a study of the tax figures reveals.

In the 18 month period since the sharing plan began in April, 1962, the gasoline tax has brought a total of over $180,000 to Sedalia and Pettis County.

A compilation of the tax revenues provided by the Missouri Oil Council reveals Sedalia's receipts have totaled $121,212.96 in the 18-month period while Pettis County was credited with $61,443.25. Combining these figures shows a revenue total of $182,656.21 for the two governmental units.

The totals are inclusive up to November, he city's allocation for November was $6,531.16 while the county's deposit is $3,391.60.

Gov. John M. Dalton today lauded the tax in a statement released from his office. His report on the statewide gasoline tax picture is carried on Page 2 of this newspaper's main section today.

Dalton Lauds Gas Tax Program

Gov. John M. Dalton reported today Missouri's five cents per gallon tax on gasoline has produced $138,861,957.53 in revenues for city, county and state roads during the past 18 months.

"This has been one of the soundest tax laws ever passed in Missouri's history," Gov. Dalton said.

The gasoline tax sharing plan was approved by the 1961 Legislature and endorsed by Missouri voters in March, 1962. It boosted the state tax on gasoline from three to five cents dividing the receipts among the 114 counties, the State Highway Department and all incorporated cities with more than 200 population.

Under the Constitutional Amendment approved by the voters, the Highway Department receives 80 per cent of the receipts; the cities get 15 per cent; and the counties are credited with the remaining 5 per cent.

"Before this plan was devised, our counties received state aid under the old King Road Law," Gov. Dalton said. "These amounts varied according to the fiscal condition of the State's General Revenue fund. Now the counties are assured of a constant supply of money for road purposes at almost double the amounts allocated under the King Road Law."

The Governor added, "The sharing plan has helped our cities immeasurably. There is evidence throughout the state of how this money is being put to work to build new streets and bring needed repairs to old thoroughfares."

Gov. Dalton reported the tax program also has been of "tremendous help to our State Highway Department which now realizes four cents instead of three on every gasoline tax nickel."

"Our cities have received $18,075,493.71 since the sharing plan began in April, 1962. The counties' share in this period has been $6,024,897.59."

"An audit of the costs of collecting and refunding gasoline taxes by State Revenue Director M. E. Morris showed the cities and counties were overcharged $41,601.85 each month since the plan went into effect," Gov. Dalton reported.

He added, "This money will be deducted from the estimated costs of the program during the next 21 months and will be reflected in increased payments to the cities and counties."

Gov. Dalton noted that the costs of collections and refunds are at best an educated guess, and similar adjustments will have to be made from time to time.

D. G. Spencer, executive director of the Missouri Oil Council, joined the Governor in praising the gasoline tax sharing plan. He said the amounts received in the past 18 months "exceed promises of oil men who campaigned in behalf of the tax on pledges it would produce an estimated $80 million annually."

Mr. Spencer added, "Reports from all sections of the state endorse this sharing plan as being the most sound, progressive tax law ever written. With the receipts of the state, cities and counties constantly on the rise, there is no excuse for anyone to say 'Let's increase the gasoline tax' which is almost as high as the cost of gasoline at the refinery."

Partial Victory for Nikita In New Soviet Union Budget

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Premier Khrushchev appears to have won only a partial victory with the new Soviet budget, possibly through compromise after a clash in the Kremlin hierarchy.

The battle may not be over. Some oddities about the Soviet budget session suggest that Khrushchev is encountering opposition.

The big argument seems to revolve about defense spending. The Supreme Soviet—a rubber-stamp parliament—was told Monday that the defense budget is being cut next year by the equivalent of $666 million. Actually, that is not much of a cut. And in the Soviet budget it is impossible to determine what money appropriated under other titles goes toward defense.

When relations between the United States and the Soviet Union are bad, the Soviet military budget can be expected to go up. The Soviet people know that deep international crises mean little hope for abundant consumer goods. Therefore, reductions of tension are popular.

Khrushchev made points with the Soviet public this year by reaching agreement with the United States and Britain on a limited ban on nuclear tests. If he then attempted to head toward other agreements, he seemed to run into some stony opposition.

A curious tug-and-pull in Soviet foreign policy this year was reflected by shifts in emphasis. Sometimes the stress was on agreements, reduction of military budgets and disarmament. At other times these purported aims were pushed into the background in favor of aggressive talk about the Berlin-German questions and the tensions in the Far East.

Such developments as the arrest of an American professor as a spy and a series of incidents on the Berlin Autobahn could have been the work of those resisting a lessening of tensions. Khrushchev, seeking a respite sufficient to permit massive concentration on the economy, appeared to intervene personally to prevent development of too critical an international atmosphere.

There is other evidence of behind-scenes tussles. Khrushchev's program for vastly increased fertilizer production to attack agriculture's ailments was openly criticized by a group of economists, who may have been egged on by powerful forces. They advanced valid-sounding arguments against so heavy a fertilizer investment while the U.S.S.R. still lacks sufficient labor and transport to get it to the farms and apply it to the land.

Khrushchev advocated a program which envisaged spending the equivalent of $46 billion over seven years on the chemical industry. He came out of the inner party debate with appropriations for 1964-65 totaling only about a tenth of that.

Gov. Dalton reported the tax program also has been of "tremendous help to our State Highway Department which now realizes four cents instead of three on every gasoline tax nickel."

"Our cities have received $18,075,493.71 since the sharing plan began in April, 1962. The counties' share in this period has been $6,024,897.59."

"An audit of the costs of collecting and refunding gasoline taxes by State Revenue Director M. E. Morris showed the cities and counties were overcharged $41,601.85 each month since the plan went into effect," Gov. Dalton reported.

He added, "This money will be deducted from the estimated costs of the program during the next 21 months and will be reflected in increased payments to the cities and counties."

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: There will be no name or address on this one, Ann, because my husband opens all the mail. Please reply in the paper if you can change the words around and make my letter printable.

My husband's closest friend dropped dead of a heart attack six months ago at the age of 44. This man had always been in excellent health, played a great game of tennis and was a leader in all sorts of civic activities. He had been a bachelor until eight months before his death. His wife was 18 years his junior.

My husband told me the day after the funeral that he is sure his friend's coronary was brought on by his marriage. He claims that sex after a certain age is damaging to the heart.

To come to the point, Ann, my husband hasn't touched me since his friend was buried and I don't know what to do. There has been no discussion, he just finds excuses to stay up later than I do every night. My husband is 41 and I am 38. Please help me.—OUT OF MY MIND.

Dear Out: Your husband's theory is invalid. Some bachelors who marry in their 40s have a far less strenuous sex life as husbands than they ever had as bachelors.

The death of your husband's close friend has obviously had a traumatic effect on him. He should discuss the problem with a doctor at once. Refusal could mean a shattered marriage.

Dear Ann Landers: I was a mother who yelled herself hoarse trying to get my children to do things. One day I woke up to the realization that yelling at children only produces resentment and makes them more hostile than ever.

My husband occasionally would step in and resort to drier sergeant methods. He got surface obedience, but he lost their affection. Finally, together we hit on a totally different technique—and it works!

When punishment is in order our children get it promptly—a swat on the bottom, or the loss of a privilege. We have cut out scolding and nagging and have substituted praise instead. We took the emphasis off the things they did WRONG and placed it on the things they did RIGHT.

It's hard to believe they are the same kids. Instead of bickering and sulking they cooperate with one another and strive for our approval. Anyone who is grumpy and cross is ignored.

I hope other mothers will try it.—EX-YELLER.

Dear Ex-Yeller: Of course it works, but it takes patience and understanding, and many mothers are too immature and short-tempered to try it.

Children respond to approval, affection and suggestion far more readily than they respond to yelling and commands. Thank you for saying it so well. I hope the shriekers will follow your excellent suggestion.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a woman in my 70's and have been very friendly for over thirty years with my next door neighbor. Mrs. X says she is 79 but people who are in a position to know say she is closer to 83.

Mrs. X does not see well and she is as deaf as a doornail. She insists on driving her car everywhere and is forever offering me a ride.

I'm afraid to ride with her and my children have begged me not to. Strangely enough she has never had an accident, which I think is a miracle. Please tell me what to do.—D. D. E.

Dear D.D.E.: The kind of driver you describe may not HAVE accidents but she can CAUSE them. Arrange for other transportation whenever she calls to offer you a ride.

Sickness Is Popular On Tuesday TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The home screens were full of sickness, maladjustment and unhappiness Tuesday night.

"Mr. Novak" struggled nobly for an hour trying to help a disturbed boy from a broken home. At the end, he sadly abandoned his salvage operations—the boy ran away and Mr. Novak went back to classes.

"The Richard Boone Show" a half-hour later on NBC had an interminable, rambling tale about a prize fighter after release from four years in a mental institution. It was full of confusing flashbacks, but apparently he was trying to find himself.

This sad saga was followed immediately on ABC by "The Fugitive," which centered on a boy with a retarded mentality. The boy was suspected of attacking a woman who had been his friend and benefactor.

Unfortunately these are the sort of themes one encounters more often than any others on evening television on these days. They may also explain why light-hearted comedy shows are at the very top of the popularity lists. A viewer can feel pretty low after a full evening of vicarious pain and anguish.

CBS has postponed its special, "The Law and Lee Oswald" to Sunday, Dec. 29. Mae West will be making one of her very rare television appearances on an upcoming "Mr. Ed" episode. Adlai E. Stevenson will be next Sunday's "Meet The Press" guest on NBC.

Crews of American television cameramen and reporters will accompany Pope Paul VI on his three-day visit to the Holy Land next month and both CBS and NBC plan special programs.

Jack Benny had his annual Christmas shopping show on CBS Tuesday night. It seemed as if I had seen it before—many times. But the cheap jokes, the long pauses were just as amusing as ever. Benny somehow always is.

Chou En Lai Treated
By Doctor Before
Touring Aswan Dam

ASWAN, Egypt (AP)—Communist Chinese Premier Chou En Lai faltered and got emergency treatment from his doctor today as he set out to tour the Aswan High Dam, the Soviet Union's biggest foreign aid project.

The 65-year-old Chinese revolutionary recovered instantly and went on to drive around the massive construction site on the Nile River in an open car, ignoring the burning sun.

His face pale and strained, Chou climbed two flights of stairs in a French-German built hydroelectric plant then walked feebly to a corner and hid his face from the crowd of officials and newsmen surrounding him. His nose was bleeding.

A Chinese doctor immediately ran to Chou's side, called for water and held something to the premier's face. After a moment, Chou's expression cleared and waving aside an American soft drink he went on touring the plant.

"This happens from time to time," said a Chinese aide. "It is not serious but that's why he always has a doctor with him."

First Degree Murder
Charge Against Wife

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Mrs. Joyce Elizabeth Greer, 31, will be charged with first degree murder in the death of her husband, assistant prosecutor Sam Modica said Tuesday.

Wayne L. Greer, 37, shot Monday during a domestic quarrel, died Tuesday. Mrs. Greer signed a statement saying she meant only to frighten her husband and thought she was shooting over his head.

Sunday. The Rev. O. H. Virgin officiated.

Burial was in the Big Rock Cemetery near Versailles.

Herman Wischmeier

Funeral services were at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Lincoln Methodist Church for Herman H. Wischmeier, 70, Lincoln resident, who died Monday. The Rev. S. A. Gardner and the Rev. Edward Lathrop officiated.

Burial was in Lincoln Cemetery.

Alois Gloss

Funeral services were at 9 a.m. Wednesday at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church for Alois Gloss, 55, 1904 West Fifth, Sedalia merchant, who died Sunday.

Burial was in Calvary Cemetery. The body was at the Gillespie Funeral Home.

FIRST OF ITS KIND—Despite the bitter cold, construction work in Sedalia goes on. Tuesday morning, the ARMO Steel Co. of Topeka, Kan., delivered this load of drainage pipe to Eichholz & Sons, contractors for the shopping center being built by WEB & Son, on South

Limit. This pipe, of continuous spiral construction, is new to this area. The metal is fed into a huge machine and spiraled into a continuous length, then cut off to the proper size. This pipe will be used for drainage under a land fill near the center of the property. (Democrat-Capital photo).

Democratic Women Stage
Annual Dinner

Democratic Women's Club of Pettis County held its annual Christmas dinner, attended by 37 members at Coffee Pot Cafe Tuesday evening.

In lieu of the traditional gift exchange, a collection was taken by Mrs. E. J. Davis, president, to be given to Children's Therapy Center.

Invocation was given by Mrs. E. J. Williams.

Mrs. Earl Parker, in charge of the program, introduced Miss Alma Massey, who presented a gift to the president from the club. Carols were sung.

Mrs. Parker read an epilogue to the late President John F. Kennedy, by Theodore H. White, and a tribute by Mrs. A. Hulsey.

Game awards were won by Mrs. P. J. McGirk, Mrs. Marlene Neidhardt, Mrs. Sybil Meyers.

Carols were played on a recorder throughout the meal. Large red and green candles were placed on the speaker's table. At each place was a small candle. The president requested that each member light her candle and pass it to the person seated next to her before the meal began.

First

(Continued from page One) Kennedy in the emergency room at Parkland Hospital in Dallas found two wounds, one in the throat and one in the head. They expressed some uncertainty whether the two were caused by the same bullet. But they said that if two bullets were involved, either wound could have been fatal.

Here is the new account of the wounds, as reported by a source fully acquainted with results of a post-mortem examination conducted at Bethesda, Md., Naval Hospital: The first shot struck Kennedy in the back, made what was described as a small, neat hole and penetrated two or three inches without damaging vital organs.

The bullet may even have entered Kennedy's back after first glancing off some part of the presidential limousine, since its penetration was not deep when compared with the damage done by the other shots fired by the assassin. This first bullet was said to have been the one that was recovered from the stretcher on which Kennedy was carried into the hospital.

The second bullet to strike Kennedy — the third bullet fired — left a large hole in the back of the President's head, destroyed considerable brain tissue and severely damaged the forehead. This wound caused instant death, although a faint spark of life may have remained for a few minutes in the heart and lungs.

This bullet, the source said, was recovered from the limousine.

The second shot fired by the assassin hit Gov. John B. Connally of Texas in the chest as he turned toward Kennedy after the first bullet hit the President. He was seated in front of Kennedy on a jump seat.

Since there was an interval of five or six seconds between Kennedy's first and second wounds, the new account leaves the implication that Kennedy might have survived — perhaps escaped serious injury — had he quickly thrown himself to the floor of his limousine after the first bullet struck.

It seems apparent, however, that the first wound was so painful and startling that Kennedy was unable to react immediately except to throw his hands in front of him. Assuming the first wound was not fatal, Kennedy's life might also have been saved had someone shielded him or knocked him to the floor of the car in the interval before he was struck in the head.

Secret Service agents are trained to react in such a fashion, but none was close enough to the President to intervene.

A parking lot at Seventh and Engineer was the scene of a two-car accident at 4:36 p.m. Tuesday.

Involved were a 1962 Chevrolet station wagon, being driven into the parking lot by John W. McHoney, 135 East Walnut, and a 1956 Ford, being backed out of the lot by Charles A. Phillips, 514 Sunset.

The right rear door and panel behind the door of the Chevrolet and the left taillight and chrome strip on the left rear fender of the Ford were damaged.

The windshield of a parked vehicle was broken while the car was parked in the 200 block on South Osage Tuesday afternoon.

According to police reports, the windshield of a 1962 Chevy II, owned by Louis Rhodus, Houstonia, was broken when ice fell from a light pole onto the windshield.

No injuries were reported in an accident about three-quarters of a mile northeast of Green Ridge on Highway B, about 5:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Trooper Pete Stohr reported the accident occurred due to slippery pavement and bright lights of an approaching automobile from the opposite direction.

Stohr said a car driven by George Downing, 42, of Green Ridge, was headed west and when a car approaching from the east had too bright lights, he slowed down and finally came to a stop, being unable to see. William Russell Pace, 57, of Green Ridge, driving a 1956 Plymouth sedan was following Downing and also came to a stop, and the third car, a 1952 Chevrolet sedan driven by Harold Dean Ward, 17, Green Ridge, who was following Pace, applied his brakes and the car went into a side skid. Ward's left rear fender struck the right rear of the Pace car.

Personal Income
Up Slightly
Over October

WASHINGTON (AP) — Personal income in November was at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $472.8 billion, a slight increase over October, the Commerce Department said today.

About one-third of the month's $1.5-billion increase in the annual rate resulted from increases in total wages and salaries, about one-third from interest and dividends, and about one-third from transfer payments. The last category includes such items as Social Security benefits and unemployment insurance payments.

Most of the payroll increase was due to increased employment by the service industries and by state and local governments.

The total manufacturing payroll showed little change from the previous month.

For the first 11 months, personal income ran at an annual rate of $462 billion, a gain of $21 billion, or 4.7 per cent, over the corresponding 1962 period. Agricultural income decreased, but all other major categories advanced over last year.

Fires In City

Lint from a clothes dryer caught fire at 8:21 a.m. Wednesday at the Raymond Wilder residence, 1619 South Engineer, but no damage resulted. Sedalia firemen answered the alarm and the blaze was out when they arrived.

Area Fires

The Pettis County Fire Department answered an alarm at 10:25 Wednesday morning at a tenant home on the farm of Jack Rader, Route 4, occupied by the Larry Mueller family. Rader had extinguished the fire when firemen arrived and damages were reported at around $25.

Firemen informed The Democrat-Capital Mrs. Mueller told them she could not persuade persons talking on the party line to give up the line so she could report the fire.

Mrs. Rader, also on the same party line, talked the conversationists into giving up the line for her, firemen said, but as soon as her call went through, someone on the line lifted the receiver and broke the connection between her phone and the fire department. She was later able to get her call through.

Firemen pointed out that failure to give up a party line during an impending disaster in order that a report may be made is a violation of the law and offenders are subject to prosecution.

There is no indication charges are to be filed in this case.

Record Chute
Jump Is Set

FT. BRAGG, N. C. — "I knew we had a record and I kept thinking about it all the way down," said Air Force Capt. Charles J. Cory, one of 13 military parachutists who set a world mass free-fall record over the California desert Monday.

Cory, of Grosse Pointe, Mich., led a three-man combat control team from Pope Air Force Base which joined 10 other jumpers in the record-breaking descent from more than 43,000 feet.

"It was routine all the way," said Lt. Col. Merrill L. Shepard, 43, of Humboldt, Kan., senior officer on the team. "There wasn't a flaw in the procedure."

New techniques were used in the jump. The Army said today techniques "will be invaluable in dropping troops behind enemy lines or in territory otherwise covered by ground fire of the adversary."

The team of jumpers—eight from the Air Force—bailed out of a C130 Hercules cargo plane over El Centro, Calif., at 7:30 a.m. Monday.

Each jumper fell 41,250 feet, or nearly eight miles, before his parachute opened automatically at 2,250 feet. The Pentagon said this broke the old record of

Auto Makers, Steel Mills Giving Economy a Boost

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Auto makers and steel mills are giving the economy its biggest upward boost just now with the consumer chipping in with his dollars.

Output of industrial machinery and freight and passenger equipment also is credited with helping autos and steel push industrial output to a record high in November.

Retail trade in most sections seems set for new December highs with consumers spending freely.

Auto executives are using present healthy demand for their 1964 models as a base for predicting a third straight good sales year ahead. In turn, their orders for materials are bolstering the steel industry.

Steel output, running in excess of two million tons a week in mid-December, is 11 per cent higher than a year ago. This month production at the mills usually drops. But this time management has been pleasantly surprised with the holdup in demand. Many steel sales executives are now predicting their shipment schedules should remain at about the same rate through January and February.

Consumer attitudes are being watched carefully. However, purchases of autos, appliances and other hard goods are seen by some as signs of confidence in the new administration and public expectation that no break in general good times is likely soon.

Sales of soft goods are continuing at their normal December pace, the best month of the year in many lines.

Makers of industrial machinery look for good orders ahead while still working on those at hand.

Better outlook for several of the nation's railroads has affected the price of their stocks and their own ordering of needed freight and passenger equipment.

The construction industry thinks all of this—from consumer confidence through industrial spending — promises it another good year.

But some economists are crying caution. They remember that past business upswings have shown similar spurts shortly before the downturn. And the traditionalists harp on the age of the present upswing, already older than the postwar average.

Burglar Trap Backfires And Kills Grocer

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—“I’ve killed myself!” moaned B.C. Russell, 63, after a shotgun rigged for burglars fired at him at the back door of his food store Tuesday.

He stumbled at a front counter and died. The charge struck him in the chest.

A pistol, mounted in the same fashion killed an ex-convict, 21, in 1959 as he started inside the store at night. A shotgun charge took the life of a 19-year-old prowler in 1961 when he touched some cigarettes back of a counter.

Russell himself suffered a wound from the pistol in 1960. Police said this caused him to remove the pistol trap but he set the shotgun after another burglary of the store, in suburban Everman.

The store's butcher, J.E. Riley, 61, said Russell obviously forgot about the 12-gauge shotgun. He was taking a box of trash outside.

“I guess I’ll regret this for a long time,” Russell said after the first man was killed in his store. Repeated burglaries led him to replace the trap, however.

Russell mounted the shotgun atop a storage area and behind a wallboard partition in the meat market. A spring was attached to the trigger and to a lead weight balanced on one edge of the meat vault.

A string tied to the screen door caused the weight to fall as the door was opened, pulling the trigger.

Ghana Students Protest Death Of One Student

MOSCOW (AP)—About four hundred Ghanaian students demonstrated in front of their embassy today to protest against the death of a student they said had been killed by a Russian.

The students placarded the embassy with signs. One of them, carrying the words “Russian friendship,” showed an African student with a knife driven into his back.

The dead student was Asare Addo, but demonstrators could not say when or where he had been killed or under what circumstances.

Some of the students said Soviet authorities had issued a statement saying Addo died of natural causes, but they disputed this.

It was the second protest by African students in a Soviet bloc country this year. In February, several hundred rioted in Sofia, Bulgaria, when police broke up a demonstration protesting a government ban on an African students’ union. Many of the 500 African students in Bulgaria left the country.

The Soviet Union also has had troublesome incidents from time to time involving African and Asian students.

Carter, an insurance agent, had lived in Independence a little more than a year. He had previously lived in Wichita, Kan. and was a native of Seymour, Mo.

Thunder of a Mighty Step; Mark's Views of Christ

EDITOR'S NOTE—The Apostle Mark's description of the life of Christ is one of direct action, the straightforward thunder of a mighty step on earth. Mark's source was Peter, also a man of direct action. Third in a series of articles on the composition of the original stories of Christ.

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

Listening to the stalwart old fisherman, Simon Peter, it sometimes was hard to tell the exact sequence of events. Mark desired to set them down in rightful order, as truly as he could.

Yet much remained strange and overwhelming. Whither the end? And how the beginning? "My son," the aging apostle said, spreading his arms like twin spars on a mast, "once we had not received mercy, but now we have received mercy." His eyes glowed in his wrinkled, windburned face.

Mark sat on a three-legged stool, with a waxed tablet on his lap, a stylus motionless in his hand, waiting for Peter to continue.

"We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ," he said stoutly. "We were eyewitnesses of his majesty."

The scene was in Rome, in the time of the Emperor Nero.

"Do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that comes," Peter said "if one suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed."

Mark realized that ominous portents were abroad. Already many believers had died or been imprisoned simply for "the name's sake." It was this, in part, that gave urgency to completion of the book.

Elders and deacons of various congregations, when he had been in Antioch and Corinth and now in Rome, had besought him as assistant to Peter, to record the chief apostle's own account of the time of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Peter himself lacked patience or training for the task, but none knew so well the astounding manifestations. He was a great talker with a sharp memory, but no writer.

It fell to Mark to set down these remembrances for the "followers of the way." Yet a question beset Mark's work—What were the origins of Jesus? From whence did He come?

Peter dwelt on the resultant action, but not on background or explanations.

And Mark shunned any conjectures. An elder of the period is quoted in an ancient document: "Mark, having become interpreter to Peter kept a single view in aim, not to omit anything of what he heard, or to state anything falsely."

The year now was in the middle of the first century. While Mark's Gospel may have been compiled as early as 40 A.D., about 10 years after the Crucifixion and Resurrection, the predominant evidence puts it between 50 and 62 A.D.

Nero had become emperor in 54 A. D. after his mother, Agrippina, plotted the poisoning of his predecessor, Claudius. Thereafter, the vain, erratic Nero had her and various other members of his family murdered.

Dire reckoning stalked those mockingly dubbed the "Christians" or "the third race," neither Jew nor Gentile, and the worst was yet to come.

The Apostle Paul had been stoned, flogged and kept in chains for two years at the foot of the Caesian Hill. Even before, the Apostle James was beheaded in Palestine; Stephen was fatally stoned; Jesus' kinsman, another James, was hurled from a temple wall and clubbed to death. Peter had broken jail.

Yet the tidings spread, penetrating even the imperial household and legions, among freedmen and slaves.

Mark himself had not been among the close circle around Jesus, but Mark's mother, Mary Bath-Nabas, a wealthy Jerusalem widow, had provided her large house as a meeting place for the disciples. Mark had been a boy then.

He recalled the suspenseful hours of their visits, especially that night of the Last Supper, when he followed them to the lonely garden of Gethsemane, invaded suddenly by flaring lights, curt voices and Roman constabulary.

Later, in manhood, he had traveled as an evangelist with Paul and his uncle, Bar-Nabas.

Mark, even with his years of labor for the cause, still depended on Peter for his first-hand narrative of the divine visitation.

The two weaved unheeded through Rome's crowded streets.

Here and there, they slipped into a humble abode, a quiet synagogue, or climbed a hill to a private grotto, for talk, hymns and prayer. "Grace be unto you," Peter would sing out to the little flocks. Whatever the circumstance, Mark added to his notes.

At length, Mark was dispatched to Alexandria, bidding farewell to Peter and other workers in Rome—Luke, Silvanus, Timothy. Not long thence, in the wake of the great fire of July, 64 A. D., Nero unleashed massive violence against Christians.

Hundreds were thrown to wild beasts, impaled on horns of bulls, dragged by horses, doused with oil and publicly burned. Peter was crucified, head downward at his request, in honor to his Lord. Paul was beheaded on the Ostian Way.

In Alexandria, tradition tells, Mark was dragged through the streets and killed in 62 or 63 A.D.

The church began its retreat to the Catacombs. But to its people, and to those for centuries to come, Mark had left a direct testimony, gained from Peter, of the coming of God's son to mankind.

That oldest written story of Christmas to be handed down to posterity in its original form, with its mixture of Peter's colloquial Aramaic showing through the Greek in which Mark composed it, contains nothing about Jesus' birth, his infancy, his parentage. It is brief, vigorous, unpolished, natural.

It begins, as it ends, in a rush of mature action, just as the Galilean fisherman lived it. It offers no rationalizations, simply the thunder of a mighty step on earth.

Story of Holy Land Trip Provides Rotary Program

Appropriate for the Rotary Christmas party which was held at Bothwell Hotel Monday night was the inspiring and enlightening talk given by Mrs. Doretta Waite, English teacher at Smith-Cotton High School, on her trip last summer to the Holy Land.

Unbiased in her opinions of the difficulty now between the Arabs and the Jews in that area Mrs. Waite saw both sides of the picture, the progress of the Jews according to the prophecies of the Bible, and the Arabs handicap of the line dividing them according to the division of the United Nations, which deprived them of water.

Mrs. Waite gave the historical background, and Bible quotations. The area, she said, had included parts of three continents, Asia, Africa and Europe and extended from the Euphrates to the Nile but the last 1,000 years it has become a wasteland and today the Holy City is the powder keg of the world.

Quoting from scripture she pointed out how the prophecies were coming to pass in which it said that the Jews would be scattered over the entire earth. They have, she said, but they have not lost their identity as Jews as they have gone over the world.

And the desolation of the land was in the prophecies, as was the promise to gather them together again where the land would again become fruitful. This, too, she pointed out, is coming to pass, and the Jews from over the world are returning. The swamps have been drained and made a place of beauty, the land is being terraced to provide a place to grow food, fruit and trees. The cedar which once covered the mountains are now gone except for a small line of them, are being replaced with the scattering of seed and there are new seedling growing.

Mrs. Waite had many pictures with which she illustrated her talk, showing scenes of the places and people of which she spoke.

W. C. Hopkins, social chairman, introduced the speaker. James T. Denny was program chairman.

Harry W. Walch, president, presided over the meeting, and invocation was given by the Rev. William E. Lusk, rector of the Calvary Episcopal Church. Aubrey Case led the singing with Miss Lillian Fox at the piano.

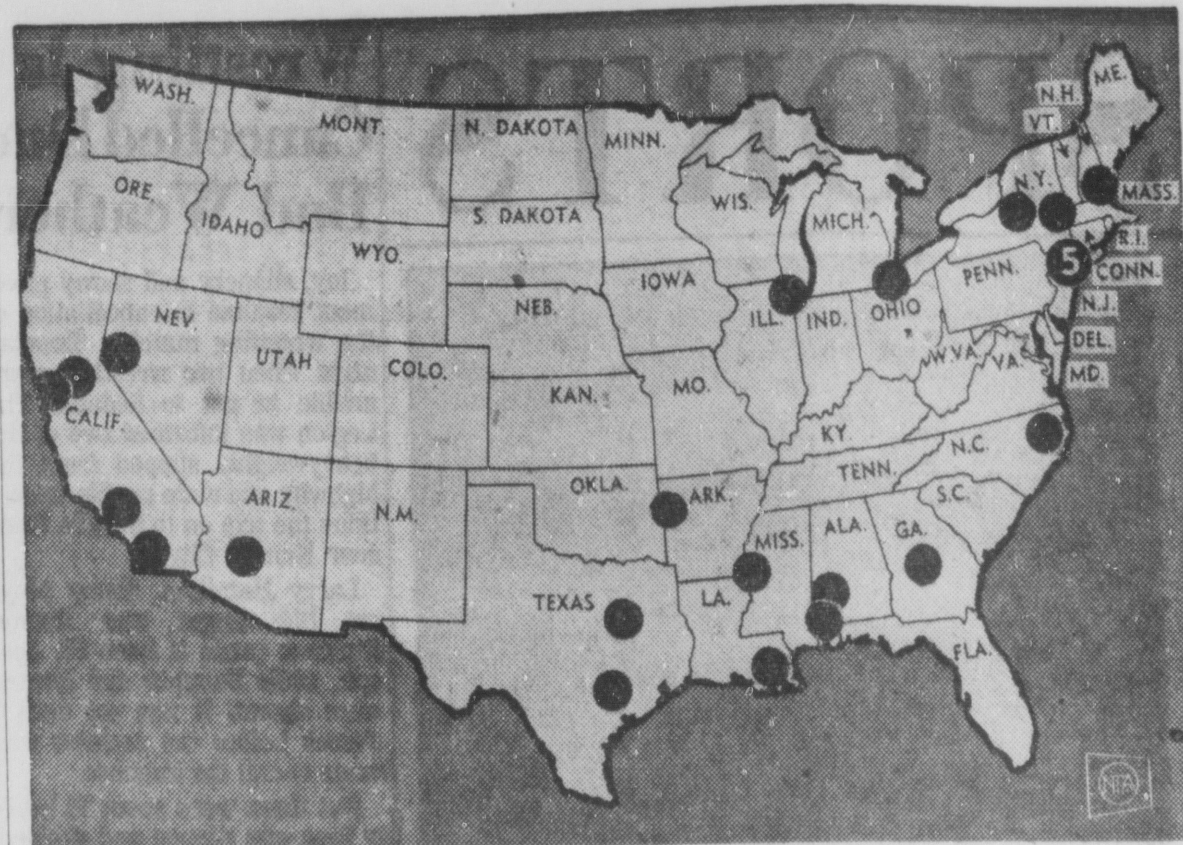

The Smith-Cotton Madrigal Singers, under the direction of Mrs. Carl Schrader, presented a program of Christmas carols. Members of the colorful group that always adds to the Christmas parties of civic clubs are: Tom Trueman, Tommy Trout, Gary Pyles, Norman Hopkins, Bill Bob Long, David Hofheins, Mike Rooks, David Schlobohm, Susan Turner, Anita Mooneyhan, LaRae Olson, Sandra Copas, Diane Gray, Virginia Green, Judy Schmidt, and Barbara Tibbitts.

Guests were introduced by Don Barnes as follows: Rev. Peter Whittier, Rev. and Mrs. William Lusk, Mrs. Charles Meserly, Ted Walch, Miss Rebekah Shaeffer, Mrs. F. W. Koenig, Mrs. Alma Hausam, Miss Christine Landman, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parkhurst, Mrs. Lucy Scott, Mrs. Ernest Thompson, Miss Lillian Fox, and Mrs. Doretta Waite.

Doctors said Tuesday that if her left eye also has to be removed, the operation possibly can be delayed until after Christmas. They wouldn't speculate on whether surgery would be required.

Vicki's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wray, came here in an old automobile. Wray, a textile worker, earns $45 to $50 weekly. He and his wife, Doris, 32, have seven other children.

The family put up a Christmas tree for Vicki over the weekend. Wray said the other children would have to go without presents to help pay for Vicki's treatment.

It provides for a $5,000 yearly salary for the judge who would be appointed by the governor on the recommendation of the Washington County legislator—Rep. J. Emmet Wood, author of the bill.

So Tuesday Wood sent in his recommendation, and as the law said, the governor endorsed it. The appointee? Mrs. J. Emmet Wood.

December Cold Continues Grip On Wide Areas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
December's cold and snowy weather showed no signs of a letup across broad areas in the eastern half of the nation today.

A storm dumped heavy snow in parts of the northern Midwest, including a record amount of nearly 15 inches in 24 hours in Muskegon, Mich. The snow covered areas from the Plains eastward across the upper Mississippi Valley into the Great Lakes region and the Ohio Valley.

Sub-zero cold and stiff winds stung much of the north central region. Temperatures dropped to more than 20 below zero in parts of South Dakota, Montana and Minnesota. Low marks included 25 below in Havre, Mont. and Aberdeen, S.D.

Heavy snow warnings were posted for parts of Ohio, Pennsylvania and Western New York State, all along the southeast shore of Lake Erie.

Fairly heavy rain fell in parts of the extreme Southeast and rain and colder weather appeared likely in most of the Gulf Coast region.

Temperatures in most of the far Southwest and the Pacific Coast region were near normal.

Clock Watcher Dies

EXETER, N.H. (AP)—Duncan R. Taylor, once the royal clock watcher for Queen Victoria, died Tuesday. He was 94.

A native of Tarran, Scotland, Taylor was responsible for making sure that clocks in Balmoral Castle kept the correct time. He gave up the job in 1893 and moved to the United States.

Believe Kennedy Death Reduced Yule Mail Flow

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Christmas mail rush may fall short of the record volume predicted. Postal officials are convinced the death of President John F. Kennedy is the reason.

For the first half of December the mail volume was 2.5 per cent below that of the same period a year ago.

Unless the peak expected this week shows a significant spurt, the Post Office Department expects the 1963 Christmas mailings to reach but not surpass the 10 billion pieces handled in 1962.

"I can't imagine what else could have caused the lag," Asst. Postmaster General Frederick C. Belen told a reporter. "The President was assassinated Nov. 22, and we're convinced people just didn't feel like buying and addressing and mailing Christmas cards and packages for a while after that."

Every postal region except Chicago—center of the mail-order world—has fallen below expectations. Across the country, Christmas mailings by the beginning of this week averaged 5 per cent below the predicted rate.

The biggest lag was in letter mail, including Christmas cards.

So far, about 6.5 billion pieces of mail have moved through the system since the month began.

Meanwhile, the department reported the prospect of record sales for its 1963 Christmas 5-cent stamp, depicting the national Christmas tree and the White House. More than 2 billion are being printed.

In College Play

Biggest Grid Surprise of All

NEW YORK (AP)—The 1963 college football season had more upsets than a drunken tight-rope walker. It seemed there were at least a couple a week.

The biggest upset of them all?

A panel of 98 sports writers and sportscasters gave the nod to Southern Methodist's 32-28 triumph over Navy.

A nationwide poll by the Associated Press gave the Mustangs' surprising victory over the second-ranked Midshipmen a slim 28-27 vote edge over UCLA's 14-0 shocker over Rose Bowl-bound Washington.

Sixteen other triumphs or ties by underdog teams were nominated for the No. 1 upset of the year but none received anywhere near the votes gathered by the Mustangs and Bruins.

Memphis State's surprising scoreless deadlock with highly favored Mississippi was regarded as the biggest upset by eight voters. Seven picked Florida's 10-6 stunner over Alabama. The same number selected Kansas State's 21-10 surprise victory over Iowa State. It snapped a 26-game Big Eight losing streak for the Wildcats.

Unbeaten Navy, led by the redoubtable Roger Staubach, carried a three-game winning streak into Dallas on Oct. 11 and expected just token opposition. To almost everyone's amazement, SMU won despite another magnificent performance by Staubach.

A slight, quick-legged sprinter, John Roderick, raced through and around the bewildered Mid-dies for two touchdowns to hand Navy its only defeat in 10 games. SMU wound up with a 4-5 season record.

UCLA had lost all seven games, including a 25-0 trouncing by California when it faced Washington Nov. 16. The Huskies had won four straight, including a 39-26 triumph over California the previous week. So what happened? Coach Bill Barnes' Bruins blanked the Huskies, scoring two touchdowns themselves.

Green Ridge Wins Victory Over Leeton

The Green Ridge Tigers, in effort to bring a little cheer to the school before Christmas, defeated the Leeton Bulldogs 69-66 in a non-conference game at Green Ridge Tuesday night. It was their second victory in 14 starts.

The Tigers' leading scorer, Bud Wiltson, a 6-foot-5 senior, pulled 14 rebounds in for the Tigers, controlling the backboards of both teams. He paced the Green Ridge attack with 22 points, admirably boosted by Jim Scott's 21.

The Tigers trailed by seven points in the first quarter of the closely-fought contest, and still were behind in the scoring column at intermission, 34-27. The third quarter was the big one for the Tigers, scoring 26 points and holding Leeton down to 13. It put the Tigers six points ahead, a lead which they grimly hung onto until the final buzzer.

Green Ridge, in the first half of play, connected for 34 per cent of its shots, bringing the percentage up to 65 in the second half. Percentages were not available for Leeton, but scores indicate the first half was their best.

The "B" game went to Leeton by two points, 27-25, with the Tigers' Jim Dove taking the scoring honors with 13 points, while Leon Epright was high for Leeton with 11.

Locals Trounce Pirates

Tigers Led By Wallace In Victory

Sedalia's Smith - Cotton Tigers, led by sharp-shooting Barry Wallace, trounced the Boonville Pirates 74-55 in a non-conference tilt at same number selected Kansas State's 21-10 surprise victory over Iowa State. It snapped a 26-game Big Eight losing streak for the Wildcats.

The Pirates, hampered by frequent fouling on which the Tigers collected valuable points, trailed from the beginning and hadn't changed the outlook of the game at half-time. Smith-Cotton, holding a 31-23 intermission lead, never let up on the Pirates.

Wallace whipped in ten field goals and connected on seven charity toss chances for his 27 points of the game. John Johnson, another S-C stalwart, backed him up with eight shots from the field and two from the free-throw line.

Boonville's best performer of the night was Strotter with nine field goals for 18 points. The Pirates connected for only seven points from the free-throw line, while the Tigers put 12 points through the loop via the same route.

The Pirates apparently didn't give Smith-Cotton any trouble throughout the game. Boonville's most productive stage of the game came in the fourth quarter when they dropped 18 points through the basket, but the Tigers answered with 21 of their own to clinch the game.

Boonville salvaged part of the evening by winning the "B" team basketball encounter, 38-32. Hassler was high for Sedalia with ten, followed by Lamy's eight. Tops for Boonville was Mann with ten and Woodridge followed also with eight.

The Tigers' next outing will be on Dec. 26 when they go into the Marshall Invitational Tournament, which runs from Dec. 26-28. It is a non-conference tournament.

Harrisonville Cats Down Knob Noster

Harrisonville's Wildcats, taking advantage of a slow start by Knob Noster, defeated the Panthers 56-53 in a basketball encounter at Knob Noster Tuesday night. Neither team belongs to a conference circuit.

Knob Noster, shooting for only 22 per cent in the first half, trailed 26-23 at half-time, made a comeback effort in the third period and saw it fizzle in the fourth.

It was a close enough contest, and the scores were low, but the Wildcats out-maneuvered the Panthers well enough and outlasted them long enough to win the game. The Panthers collected on 29 per cent of their shots in the second half of play.

Bill Hughes was Knob Noster's best performer on the scoring column with 19 points, followed by Jerry Kuhlman with 12. High for Harrisonville was Knox with 19, while Limpus put in 16 to follow.

The "B" game went to the Panthers by a point, 34-33, with Tebbenkamp taking the scoring lead with nine points. High for Harrisonville was Lesley with 12.

Wrestling Is Cancelled Due Bad Weather

Icy, slippery and snowy pavement resulted in cancellation of the wrestling matches Tuesday night when two wrestlers were unable to get to Sedalia. The Legion was informed two of the heavyweights slipped from the highway and were unable to continue the trip on to Sedalia from near Kansas City.

Larry Hamilton, Sonny Meyers, Bob Giegel and Ronnie Etchison made it from St. Joseph, while Stomper and Hunter were absent. It was not until 8 o'clock before the decision was made to call the matches.

But there were about 75 hearty fans who slipped and skidded to Liberty Park to see the events, but left early not too disappointed on not seeing the matches, rather glad they could get back home early.

It was announced the matches will be resumed in Sedalia on Tuesday night, Jan. 7, at which time the Pettis County Post 16, American Legion will hold their annual benefit show for the Children's Therapy Center.

Promoter Gust Karras, himself unable to get to Sedalia, previously told the Legion he would arrange an all-star studied program for the benefit show and hopes to be able to have the largest such show the Legion has sponsored for the Center.

The Legion plans on an advance selling of tickets for the benefit and are looking forward to being able to hand over to the Center officials a nice "fat" check, to help in the financial support.

13th Game Brings Loss To Warsaw

The unlucky 13th game brought a loss to the Warsaw Wildcats Tuesday night, their first loss of the season. They went down in defeat to Buffalo, 77-58. Warsaw has 12 wins to its credit.

Both teams appeared almost evenly matched in the first quarter, as Buffalo gained only one point over their opponents. However, in the second period, the visitors opened their scoring throttle and left the Wildcats behind.

Buffalo continued their scoring tactics in the second half as they left Warsaw blinded by their dust. The Wildcats managed a scoring drive in the last period, but their effort failed as they fell short of the desired mark.

Casady led the scoring for Buffalo with 23 points. Roger Pickard was high for Warsaw with 24.

In the B contest, Warsaw was again defeated by Buffalo, 63-43. Beard was high pointer for Buffalo with 13 points. High for Warsaw was Bobby Barnes also with 13.

The Wildcats will meet Lincoln on Lincoln's court in a PBCAA Conference contest, Jan. 3.

Score by quarters:
Individual scoring: Buffalo—Casady, 23; Benfroft, 19; Clastill, 11; Holland, 8; Chuck Johnson, 7; Lindsey, 5; Don Johnson, 4; Warsaw—Pickard, 24; Jackman, 12; Johnson, 9; Kenny Shepherdson, 8; Hirsch, 2; Parsons, 1; Breshers, 1; Hager, 4.

Tittle Takes Individual Passing Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Y. A. Tittle of the New York Giants won the first individual passing championship of his 14-year career in the National Football League in the season that ended Sunday. Y. A. led every week and finished up with a record-breaking total of 36 touchdown passes.

Tittle completed 221 of 367 for 3,145 yards and had only 14 intercepted. The standings are based on per cent of completions, 60.2; TD passes, 3.6; per cent of interceptions, 3.8; and average yards gained, 8.57. Johnny Unitas, of Baltimore was second.

Jimmy Brown of Cleveland had wrapped up the rushing crown so early that it came as absolutely no surprise to learn that he was the winner with a record 1,863 yards. It was Jimmy's sixth rushing title in seven years. He dethroned Jim Taylor of Green Bay, the 1962 champ, who was second with 1,618 yards.

Bobby Joe Conrad of St. Louis won the pass receiving title by nabbing 73 for 967 yards. Bobby Mitchell of Washington was second with 69 catches for 1,436 yards.

Don Chandler, New York's punter, field goal kicker and extra point man became the scoring champion with 106 points, two more than Jim Martin of Baltimore. Chandler kicked 18 field goals and 52 conversions. The first four scorers were kickers. Jimmy Brown's 15 touchdowns gave him 90 points for fifth place.

Dragon Defeats Warrior

Both Teams Get Off To Good Start

The Bunceton Dragons got a run for their money Tuesday night when they met and defeated Boonville Catholic's Warriors 97-84 in a CCAA conference game at Bunceton. It was the Dragons' third straight conference win. They have yet to lose in their circuit.

Both teams got off to a galloping start in the first quarter with the Dragons having a three point edge on the Warriors. The second quarter saw both teams deadlocked in per-quarter scoring with both putting 26 points on the score boards. Intermission saw the Warriors still trail by three points.

Boonville Catholic technically lost the game in the third quarter when the Dragons scored 29, holding their opponents down to 14. It was a setback from which the Warriors couldn't recover, even though they made a tremendous effort in the final period, scoring 25 points, while the Dragons scored 20.

Bunceton's Don Dicus was once again the game's over-all best performer. Dicus whipped in 17 field goals and three charity tosses for a tremendous 37 points in the game. He fell three points short of his best performance in a single game with 40 points. Dicus, a 5-foot-11 senior forward, has lettered twice in basketball with the Dragons.

Top performers for Boonville Catholic were Joe Oswald with 24 points, followed closely by Connie Twenter's 23.

The Bunceton girls also won their conference game, 49-39, with Marian Ann Foster again dominating the scoring column with 29 points. High for Boonville Catholic was Patty Krause with 25. Bunceton's girls now hold a 2-1 conference record and a 7-5 season record. The boys are 3-0 in the conference and 11-1 for the season.

Newsome Seeks Scoring Crown

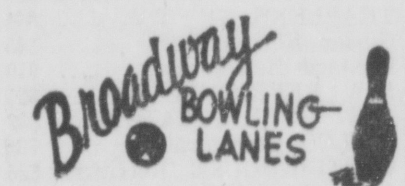

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Attention Nick Werkman and Barry Kramer:

Manny Newsome, a 5-foot-9 sparkplug from Western Michigan, may be out to steal the major college scoring crown while returning the title to a 30-point plus scorer.

Werkman averaged 29.5 points a game for Seton Hall last year to 29.3 for NYU's Kramer and became the first scoring champion in 11 years to win the crown without averaging 30 points a game.

Both are back in the battle this season, but the big surprise has been the point production of Newsome, two-time scoring champion in the Mid-American Conference, who wound up 18th on the list in 1962 with a 23.1 average.

Newsome has been scoring at such a prolific rate his average dropped to 31.8 Tuesday night when he scored 31 in Western Michigan's 92-89 victory over Notre Dame. It was only the second victory in six games for the Broncos.

But Newsome and Western Michigan have been playing some of the top teams in the country — Northwestern, Michigan State, Marquette, Loyola, Michigan and now Notre Dame. And Newsome has scored heavily against all.

Outstanding one-man shows also were turned in by Rick Barry, who made all 17 of his foul shots and collected 35 points in Miami of Florida's 95-83 victory over San Francisco, and by Marvin Mitchell, who hit 13 of 18 from the floor and scored 30 points as West Texas edged Western Kentucky 84-83.

Chuck Richards scored 35 points and hit for the winning basket with three seconds left as Syracuse edged Cornell 86-84 and Clemson also won with three seconds left, edging Virginia 53-52 on a final shot by Mike Bohonak.

In other games, Carroll Hooser clicked for 27 points in SMU's 97-75 triumph over Georgia Tech. Virginia Tech rode Howard Pardue's 20-point effort to a 81-75 victory over Georgia. Wisconsin crushed Gonzaga 115-71, Oklahoma State walloped Long Beach State 91-66, Texas Tech clipped Oklahoma 95-66, Princeton defeated Rutgers 79-50, Ohio U. downed St. John's, N.Y., 58-54 and Morehead beat Marshall 103-83.

Cowboys Set Scoring Record Tuesday Night

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Larry Hawks set a fast pace for Oklahoma State Tuesday night as the Cowboys set a school basketball scoring record 91-66, in beating Long Beach State.

Hawks scored seven of Oklahoma State's first nine points and led all scoring with 25 as the Big Eight team pushed its record against non-conference opponents to 4-2.

In the only other game involving a Big Eight school, Texas Tech powered past Oklahoma 95-66 to bring the Sooners' season record to 2-3.

Oklahoma State's school record was 89 points against Phillips University in 1945. Hawks scored 18 points in the first half, which ended 47-28 in the Cowboys' favor.

Texas Tech broke loose from a 7-7 tie after eight minutes and led Oklahoma 46-25 at the half. Oklahoma was able to hit only 28 per cent of its shots in the first half against Tech's 44.

Colorado entertains powerful Cincinnati tonight and Kansas State is host to Denver in the only games involving Big Eight teams.

Pilgrim Beer

The Puritans attached considerable importance to beer as an item in their provision stores. John Alden was signed on by the Pilgrim party to act as the colony's cooper.

Place Men On All-Stars

Oakland and San Diego Still Battling for Western Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Oakland and San Diego, still battling for the Western Division title, placed a total of 11 men on the 22-man All-Star team of the American Football League.

The only unanimous choice was flanker back Lance Alworth of San Diego.

Eight of the offensive team, selected by a panel of 24 sports writers and sportscasters for The Associated Press, were from the Western Division. The East, however, had a 6-5 edge on the defensive unit.

Coach Al Davis' Oakland Chargers placed split end Art Powell, center Jim Otto and running back Clem Daniels on the offensive team and middle linebacker Archie Matsos and backs Fred Williamson and Tommy Morrow on the defensive eleven.

San Diego had three men in the backfield—quarterback Tobin Rote, flanker Alworth and fullback Keith Lincoln—plus offensive tackle Ron Mix on the first offensive team. Earl Faison of the Chargers is the defensive end.

Buffalo, tied with Boston for the Eastern title, had tackle Stew Barber and guard Bill Shaw on the offensive team and tackle Tom Sestak on defense.

Houston's three representatives included guard Bob Talamini and defensive backs Tony Banfield and Freddy Glick. Boston's delegation were Houston Antwine at defensive tackle and Larry Eisenhauer at defensive end.

Kansas City, the 1962 champs as the Dallas Texans, had tight end Fred Arbanas on offense and linebacker E. J. Holub on defense. The New York Jets' only representative is Larry Grantham at linebacker.

Cards Take Second In Tri-County

The Tipton Cardinals enjoyed their second Tri-County Conference win of the season Tuesday night as they whipped the Osage Indians, 50-36. The Cardinals are undefeated this season, having seven wins and no losses.

Glenn Arnold sparked the Cardinals' playing, grabbing the ball many times and employing the fast break to score. Tipton led throughout the contest. Osage continued to better themselves continuously in the quarter scoring, but they couldn't manage to catch up with the Cardinals.

Arnold led the way for Tipton's scoring with 20 points. High for the Indians was Ed Wilson with 12 points.

In the B contest, Tipton again emerged victorious over the Indians, 32-25. Van Donley was high scorer for the Cardinals with 13 points. High for Osage was Whittie with 10.

The Cardinals will meet Versailles on the home court, January 3.

Score by quarters:
Tipton.....12 12 13 30
Osage.....8 6 10 12—36
Individual scoring: Tipton—Klass, 2; Stoner, 1; Arnold, 20; Huhmann, 7; Oswald, 2; Luebert, 4; McBroom, 4; Snoggrass, 2; York, 2; Osage—Meyers, 4; Delbringe, 2; Imier, 1; Burris, 6; Wilson, 12; Stith, 1; Bailey, 4.

San Francisco Survives Scare, Beats St. Louis

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

San Francisco survived a closing-minutes scare Tuesday night and nipped St. Louis, 110-106, in a National Basketball Association cliff-hanger. But the ghost that plagued New York in its 107-103 loss to Detroit was too much for the shock-up Knicks.

Boston curdled Baltimore, 131-114, in the only other game scheduled.

The Warriors blew a 20-point lead in the final eight minutes but hung on to move within 2 1/2 games of the second-place Hawks and within three of Los Angeles' Western Division leaders.

The Knicks blew the whole ball game as Donnie Butcher, dealt to the Pistons Sunday, haunted his ex-mates with a 17-point performance and took charge of Detroit's offense in the winning stretch drive.

Annexation, Bonds Rejected By Voters

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Voters rejected in a special election Tuesday proposals to annex 41 square miles and issue bonds totaling $3.5 million.

With only one of 52 precincts unreported, the annexation proposal was rejected 9,682 to 5,127.

The two bond issues, requiring two-thirds votes for approval, failed to gain simple majorities. Voters turned down a $2.25 million sewer bond proposal 7,170 to 7,031, and a $1.25 million street paving issue 7,027 to 6,965.

'Password' Repeating Some Words

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) -- In the past two years CBS' daytime and evening "Password" has used close to 6,000 words—and is now repeating. There are few others in the English language which are suitable for the television guessing game.

"It's not really a problem," explained coproducer Bob Stewart, "because different combinations of contestants try to guess the word each time, so the word plays differently each time."

The list was achieved by the long but simple process of studying the dictionary and avoiding esoteric words, rare words and jawbreakers.

"A word like 'pendant' is one we'd hesitate to use," said Frank Wayne, also a coproducer. "Mostly because it's not a word everyone knows."

"We've discovered that there are some words that everybody knows but which few people use in conversation even though they might write them—'tirade,' 'stride' and 'rage' are just three of them. On the other hand, some words like 'scuttlebutt' surprised us and worked out very well."

The producers don't worry about stumblers—just as long as the guessing goes fast or funny. They keep complete files on players and words they have used, so there's never a chance that the celebrity guest will be on familiar ground.

Best words, in terms of the program, are those of substance. "Wall" for instance, is a good one, and so is a word like "flow" because it gives the contestants a chance to use their face and arms.

Because the producers can never predict how well the teammates will communicate with each other, Frank Wayne usually stays close to the word list. Occasionally, if the game becomes static, Wayne will replace a word with one designed to get things going again.

Studio contestants are volunteers who are given some tests before being selected for the show.

"If they went on and did very badly, they'd embarrass themselves as well as ruin the show," said Stewart.

Yule Music For Optimist Club Meeting

The Optimist Club Christmas program was presented at noon Tuesday at Bothwell Hotel by a chorus of 75 music students of Smith-Cotton High School under the direction of Mrs. Carl Schrader.

The program opened with the arrangement of "Twas the Night Before Christmas," a bright and gay little Christmas song around the favorite old poem.

This was followed by a bass solo by Tom Trout, "Why Do The Nations Rage?", from the Messiah.

Two songs by the chorus were "Come I So Early In The Morning" and "Come To The Stable With Jesus Tonight."

The program ended with "Hallelujah" sung by the chorus.

The accompanist was Penny Nichols.

Another part of the program was the appearance of the Smith-Cotton Madrigal Singers: Tom Trueman, Gary Pyles, Tom Trout, Norman Hopkins, Bill Bob Long, David Hofheins, Mike Rooks, Anita Schlobohm, Susan Turner, Anita Mooneyhan, La-Rae Olson, Sandra Copas, Diane Gray, Barbara Tibbitts, Virginia Green and Judy Schmidt, who sang a group of Christmas carols.

Ed Mitchel president, presided over the meeting and invocation was given by Wray Schroeder.

Larry Wanserski led the group singing with Miss Lillian Fox at the piano.

Wives of Optimist members were special guests and were introduced.

World News In Brief

MARACAIBO, Venezuela (AP) — The Prieto quintuplets are going home from the hospital Saturday, three months and 13 days after their birth.

Efren and Ines Prieto will take their five sons to a sprawling house in the fashionable El Paraiso neighborhood, a big change from the shoreside shack the family once occupied. Birth of the babies Sept. 8 brought money and gifts pouring in.

The quints' doctors say a graduate nurse will look after them at home, but they are thriving and need no special diet.

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro's government has started its annual import of special foods for Christmas.

The first shipment arrived Monday from Spain and Algeria. It included olive oil, candy, wine, grapes, dates and a quantity of powdered milk donated by the Algerian government.

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — South Viet Nam's military junta replaced its marine and air force commanders today in the latest of a series of top-level military changes.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru said today Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, had informed him the United States may send two or three warships to "get acquainted" with the Indian Ocean.

Nehru told Parliament Taylor, here for talks with Indian military chiefs, "very casually told me the matter is under the consideration of the U.S. government."

There have been critical comments since reports in the Indian press and from Washington that the United States might extend the operations of the 7th Fleet into the Indian Ocean.

Book Review For Sorosis Monday Meet

Mrs. John Lewis Christopher of Warrensburg was the speaker at Sorosis Monday afternoon, reviewing the book, "In Wilderness Is Preservation of the World."

The beautiful photograph of Dr. Elliott Porter, a Harvard graduate who turned to his great love of the photography of nature, was inspired by his wife's comment that his pictures reminded her of Thoreau, poet and writer, who died 100 years ago. Dr. Elliott, until that time, Mrs. Christopher said, had not been an admirer of the writings of Henry David Thoreau, began to read the writings of Thoreau, and seeing the similarity combine them with his pictures. It was the writing and poetry of Thoreau, put together with the pictures that created the book.

Thoreau, she said, is a master of beautiful sentences, a naturalist and a linguist. He believed in moral values revealed by nature. His writing now is considered classics although it was not valued so highly during his lifetime.

His cabin, which was one room, 10 by 15 feet, with one door and one fireplace, was built on Ralph Waldo Emerson's land, and his food cost him $8.50 a month. He did carpentry work, painting and odd jobs for his neighbors. His family was pencil makers but he didn't like that.

"We need less, rather than to get more," he believed, and he always spent part of each day by river or field. He believed in simplifying life with knowledge, virtue and beauty.

Throughout the book were bits of poetry and writings that showed his close association with the beauties and wonders of nature. Thoreau, Mrs. Christopher pointed out, believed moral values may be revealed by nature, and in his commun-

Candles In Sacks As Decorations Again This Year

The First Methodist Church will again have the luminaries this year, when the young people of the church put sand in the bottom of paper bags into which they place candle holders with candles which they light. These will be lighted prior to the candlelight service which will be held in the sanctuary of the church at 7:30 p.m.

The sacks, symbolic of lighting the way to Christ, will be on both sides of the sidewalk, both on Osage and Fourth, and will be on both sides of the steps leading to the church door.

The candlelight service which will consist of Christmas carols by the three choruses, scripture reading and meditation by the minister, Rev. Roy Stribling, will close with all the congregation recessing with lighted candles and forming a big circle in front of the church closing the service in this manner.

ion with nature he inspected snowstorms, webs, which he described as fairy veils, trees and flowers and insects and birds.

Dr. Elliott, too, closely studied nature, and was particularly interested in birds. He received two fellowships and has many books on birds. Birds, he said, taught him how to have patience.

Another man who had a part in the publishing of the book was Dr. Joseph Crutch, and the title was chosen by David Brauer. This book is through the seasons and seems to have two sides—one as the eye of the poet as God sees it with all beauty, life in progress, and as the historian sees it, in things dead.

When someone said once to Thoreau: "You should make your peace with God" he replied: "I am not aware that we have ever quarreled."

Mrs. Christopher was introduced by Miss Edna Snell, current topics chairman. She also introduced Mrs. H. H. Russell, mother of the Sorosis president, who accompanied Mrs. Christopher to Sedalia.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Robert S. Johnson, president.

The next meeting will be Jan. 20, and will be the new member program.

Christmas Parties Occupy Students at High School

By JUDY CHRISTIAN

Future Homemakers of America had their Christmas party and regular meeting Thursday. Sheryl Rogers, vice-president, announced that April 24, 1964, would be the date for the FHA sponsored dance of which FHA Queen Anita Mooneyhan, the senior daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mooneyhan, along with her two senior attendants, Kay Cairer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cairer, and Sheryl Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rogers, will reign.

For the Christmas program Paula Stribling gave a Christmas reading about a little girl whose only possession was a few matches. La Rae Olson and Anita Mooneyhan led the girls in singing Christmas carols. For refreshments, cookies and punch were served on a buffet table which was decorated with a toothpick tree and candles. The Future Homemakers presented their sponsor, Mrs. Mary Maddox, home economics teacher, with a pin and earrings set to show their appreciation.

Peter Thurell, Smith-Cotton foreign exchange student from Sweden, entertained the Future Teachers of America at their annual Christmas party. He shared with the girls some of his favorite Swedish folk songs and a newly learned American Christmas song, "Jingle Bells," as he accompanied himself on the guitar. While listening to the songs, Future Teachers enjoyed refreshments of cookies, fudge, and pop, furnished by the club sponsor, Mrs. Christine E. Kilion.

To encourage pep, enthusiasm and spirit, the S-C cheerleaders, Toni Giger, Gayleen Jaeger, Sherry Murray, Jo Dickey, and Joyce Cairer have invented a "spirit jug" which is fought for by each class at pep assemblies. The class that yells the loudest wins the "jug" for that week. The Junior Class was the

Miss Louise Dickmann Marries Arnold O. Siefker Thanksgiving

Miss Louise Dickmann, of Sweet Springs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Diekmann, Levasy, was united in marriage to Mr. Arnold O. Siefker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold B. Siefker, Sibley, Mo., at six o'clock Thursday evening, Nov. 28, Thanksgiving.

The Rev. Max Pepmeier read the ceremony at Levasy United Church of Christ, before a setting of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums in altar vases. Palms, brass candelabra and a kneeling bench completed altar arrangements.

Miss Mabel Diekmann, Levasy, cousin of the bride, played organ selections.

She accompanied Miss Juliann Diekmann, Levasy, sister of the bride, who sang "I Love You Truly," "O Perfect Love," "The Lord's Prayer" and "Whither Thou Goest."

Candlelighters were Miss Phyllis Bellis, of Independence, and Mr. Elroy Knoche, Napoleon.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress of delustered satin with a scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. The back of the bodice fastened with small buttons down the back and joined the deep pleated skirt at the pointed waistline. The skirt tapered into a small chapel train. Alien lace motifs with seed pearls accented the bodice and skirt front. Her full elbow length veil was held in place with a seed pearl crown. She carried a cascade arrangement of white chrysanthemums and yellow roses.

Miss Lois Diekmann, Sweet Springs, twin sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, wore a gown of antique gold satin. It was styled with a scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and a bell skirt. Her hat and mitts matched the dress. She carried a basket of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids, dressed like the maid of honor, were Miss Corrine Diekmann, Levasy, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Lucille Bollinger, Buckner, sister of the bridegroom.

Best man was Mr. Raymond

Siefker, Sibley, brother of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Mr. Glen Diekmann, Levasy, brother of the bride, and Mr. Mike Bollinger, Buckner, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Ushers were Mr. Kenneth Diekmann, Napoleon, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Marvin Siefker, Kansas City, cousin of the bridegroom.

Rings were carried to the altar by Mr. Curtis Diekmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodor Diekmann, Napoleon.

The bride's mother wore a dark green dress suit with bronze and black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue green dress suit with accessories to match. Both had corsages of bronze chrysanthemums.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the church parlor after the ceremony. White linen covered the bridal table which was set with a decorated cake, yellow-gold punch in a bowl, nuts and mints, lighted candles and an arrangement of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

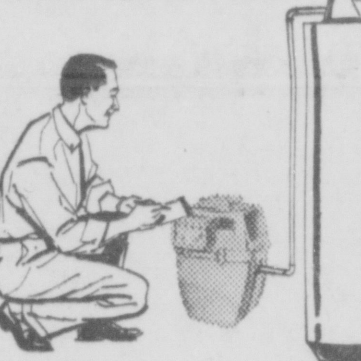

Mrs. Ted Diekmann, and Mrs. Roy Diekmann, Napoleon, Mrs. Raymond Lohsant, Wellington, Mrs. Raymond Diekmann, Liberty, served.

The guest book was attended by Mrs. Sharon Wulfekammer, Buckner.

After the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip through Arkansas and Oklahoma. The bride wore a white wool suit with maize blouse and black accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

The couple returned Dec. 2 to reside at 209 Lexington, Sweet Springs. The bride attended the University of Missouri, Columbia. She is a home economics teacher at Sweet Springs High School. The bridegroom attended Central Business College, Sedalia. He has been in the army and is employed as an accountant for General Motors Acceptance Corporation, Kansas City.

Motions Are Under Study

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Circuit Judge Sam C. Blair has taken under advisement the motions of seven steel companies to dismiss the state's damage suit against them.

The state seeks $2.5 million in civil damages and $5 million in punitive damages, charging conspiracy to defraud.

Except for the Stupp construction contracts, attorneys for the steel companies argued Monday they had no direct dealings with the state, but merely supplied bridge steel to prime contractors.

Besides the Stupp company, defendants in the damage suit are:

In a separate ouster suit, now in the hands of a special commissioner, the state is seeking to oust the alleged conspirators from doing business in Missouri. The state charges they split the state into territories and conspired to rig bids on bridge steel.

Kansas City Structural Steel Co. of Kansas City, Kan., St. Joseph Structural Steel Co. of St. Joseph, Missouri Valley Steel, Inc., of Leavenworth, Kan., Havens Structural Steel Co. of Kansas City, Wilmar Steel Co. of St. Louis, now out of business, and A. J. Industries Co. of Los Angeles through its subsidiary, Reynolds Manufacturing division of Springfield.

Despite Modern Science Dishes, Glasses Break

By JOY STILLER
NEW YORK (AP)—Modern science has done wonders, but it still hasn't figured out how to make a dish or glass that I can't break.

Some people leave happiness in their wake as they sail through life. I strew shattered pottery behind me.

Glasses, china, ashtrays, vases slip through my hands like money through a compulsive gambler's. It's not just fragile things I manage to fracture—the toughest jelly glass has a short life in my kitchen.

I buy glasses a dozen at a time, hoping I can set a matching table for at least a little while. I manage to go through the first 11 in short order, but the final glass in each set proves almost indestructible. Consequently there are usually seven or eight glasses of completely different design in my cabinet.

As for china, I have the remnants of five different sets on my shelves. If a cup matches its saucer it's a coincidence. If the cup still has a handle it's a miracle.

With the advent of plastic, the turnover hasn't been quite as rapid, but somehow I manage to break even the unbreakable.

My husband came to my rescue on my last birthday. He presented me with a beautiful set of milk-white glasses covered with a colored rubbery plastic coating. In the box was a certificate announcing in bold letters "Guaranteed a full year." Carefully I put the guarantee away—but not too far away.

Sure enough, within a few weeks one of my new glasses went the way of its predecessors.

Smugly I took the guarantee slip out. There it was, "guaranteed a full year."

Inside the folder in letters not quite so big were the words "Guaranteed for one year from purchase date against chipping, discoloring or peeling of plastic coating."

And underneath this in still smaller type: "Glasses not guaranteed against breakage."

The federal government makes no effort to determine whether a "good start" even though there is a lot left to be done next year.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington: Congress record: As the 1963 Congress plunged into its final week Monday, Senate leaders complimented each other for cooperation and brushed off charges that it had been a do-nothing session.

GOP Senate chief Everett M. Dirksen said it might be characterized as a "stop, look and listen Congress," wary of new federal programs and increased spending.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Congress had made a "good start" even though there is a lot left to be done next year.

Cambodia: The United States still is studying whether to support a conference whose mission would be to guarantee Cambodia's neutrality, a State Department spokesman said Monday.

There were reports from Paris over the weekend that Secretary of State Dean Rusk had agreed in principle to reconvene the Geneva Conference to discuss the situation in Cambodia.

Production: With the output of automobiles and consumer goods continuing at a brisk pace, the nation's industrial production remained virtually unchanged in November.

The Federal Reserve Board's index of production inched up from 126.6 to 126.9. This compares with a base of 100 as the and utility industries.

Worse in Mesozoic Age

A pin oak and a walnut tree are missing from the lawn of the Pettis County Court House. Their removal has saddened myriads of starlings whose roosting places are now more cramped.

Some tree lovers mourned the loss. However, there are enough trees for ample shade and beauty. Two less hasn't made any noticeable difference; rather an improvement in the landscaping seems apparent now.

The walnut was rotting. The pin oak's proximity to the northeast sidewalk made the latter a night depository for the starlings' droppings. Rain or snow made this a mushy mess to be tracked into the court house by pedestrians. Not only that but there is growing evidence, especially concerning pigeons, that this condition contributes to the spread of infectious diseases.

Some people believe this so thoroughly they even avoid passing along the sides of downtown buildings which have the startling trade mark along the walks.

Repeated efforts to decimate the startling population in the court house area have been ineffective although progress has been made getting rid of pigeons.

Since we can't get rid of all of them, it seems logical to remove trees or their branches which overhang the sidewalks in the interest of human protection from these deadly birds who come in massive flocks at dusk every night.

Furthermore since we must tolerate the starlings remaining to make their nightly chatter and dirt, we may get some consolation from not living in the Mesozoic age of the tail-less pterodactyls, the extinct and largest flying creature of which we have any knowledge.

What a mess they would have made around the Pettis County Court House.

Looking Backward

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

During the home room period, the Smith-Cotton High school Senior class elected four girls who in their opinion qualify as the best girl citizens in the class. They chose: Patricia Poundstone, Nancy Willetts, Ruth Franklin and Jeanne Rector.

No Germs for Mars

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration wants no bugs on Mars. NASA's new sterilization procedures are meant to deal with one of the toughest subjects in the world scientific community. The scientists in both the United States and Russia insist that Mars should not be contaminated by any germs spacecraft might leave behind.

NASA, nor the scientists seem to be so fussy about the moon. The lunar landers will be treated only with the same care

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Foreign Newsmen See LBJ's Bedroom

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Fourteen of the top foreign correspondents in the Washington newspaper corps got a rare treat when President Johnson escorted them personally on a tour of the family living quarters in the White House.

Seldom are outsiders admitted to the second floor of the White House. Winston Churchill used to stay there during the war when he came to confer with President Roosevelt, and used to clomp down the hall in his slippers with a crimson bathrobe flapping over his paunch. But since the construction of Blair house, no foreign visitors reside in the White House and newspapermen have not been admitted to the second floor since before Eisenhower.

Johnson, however, invited fourteen foreign correspondents, representing French, Japanese, Italian and Russian newspapers, with their wives, to meet him on the second floor for refreshments. Vladimir Vashedcheko, of the Soviet government's Tass agency, was also present.

After coffee, the President announced: "Come on, don't you all want to see the rest of the second floor?"

He showed them all the rooms, including his own bed room where the bed was turned down and his pajamas were laid out ready for retirement.

"Isn't this wonderful!" remarked Jean La Grange, correspondent of France Presse. "No one in all history has seen De Gaulle's pajamas."

LBJ's pajamas were a mauve brown. The President showed them the treaty room.

"It startled me," he said, "when I walked in here one day and found Lucy's plane geometry book lying here."

The President also showed his visitors the balcony, or "back porch," which Harry Truman built despite great architectural criticism, and almost everything else on the second floor of the White House.

Johnson had looked up the record of each guest, knew their careers, talked to them with intelligence.

Despite the fascination of the personal presidential tour, even more important were Johnson's own words in explaining his goals as president.

"Our No. 1 problem is not bases," he said, "nor tax bills nor civil rights. Our No. 1 problem is going down the road together with our neighbors with dignity and better understanding toward peace."

The fourteen top correspondents departed

How the Swine Dine.—Recent news reports seem to indicate that pigs are more pampered than people in that paradise of the proletariat—the USSR. Many Russian peasants are struggling to keep bread on the table in the wake of a disastrous wheat harvest, but Soviet swine are living high on the hog. Izvestia reported recently that a Moscow confectionery factory has been delivering chocolate wafers to a nearby hog farm as animal feed. The pigs were said to thrive on the diet.

It sounds as though the Reds, who have already invented everything else of value in this world, are trying to develop the first pork chop éclair.

The planetary landings will be sterilized by heat. NASA says that under no circumstances will an unmanned spacecraft destined for landing on the planets be launched until sterility is assured.

This interesting by-problems of the Space Age should make Rachel Carson happy. We hope the scientists are just as cautious about bringing bugs back from the moon and the planets to add to our germ species and population.

Await Younger Red China Leaders

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's administration, like President John F. Kennedy's, is reconciled to a long wait before there can be hope of dealing with Red China in a reasonable and peaceful way.

The hope, such as it is, apparently is based on the idea that when the present leaders of China die out the men who take over — younger men just below the top now — will be more realistic about the world they live in.

This was the essence of a talk made a few days ago by Roger Hillsman, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs.

It is not a new idea in history that the pioneers in a political movement are often impelled by fanaticism to convert and dominate and that the zeal remains undiminished in their lifetime. The result is extremism.

The early revolutionary has nothing to lose but his life, which he is willing to lose, along with that of everyone else. If death doesn't stop him he may create a new order. This is what his successors inherit.

Now they have more to lose than their lives in any romantic or reckless adventure, certainly in a nuclear time like this. The realization has a sobering and conservative effect.

Members of a Sunday School class planned to get a nice gift for the teacher of the class and someone called a member of her family and asked if they knew what she wanted.

"If I knew," came the reply, "I would get it myself." Then she called and told her what she had said when somebody wanted to know what she wanted.

A few days later when it snowed so hard and the woman tried to get her car out of the garage, but couldn't because of the snow, she called the member of the family who had called her, and made a suggestion.

"I could use a snow shovel," she said, "that is one thing I found that I really need and don't have." — H. L.

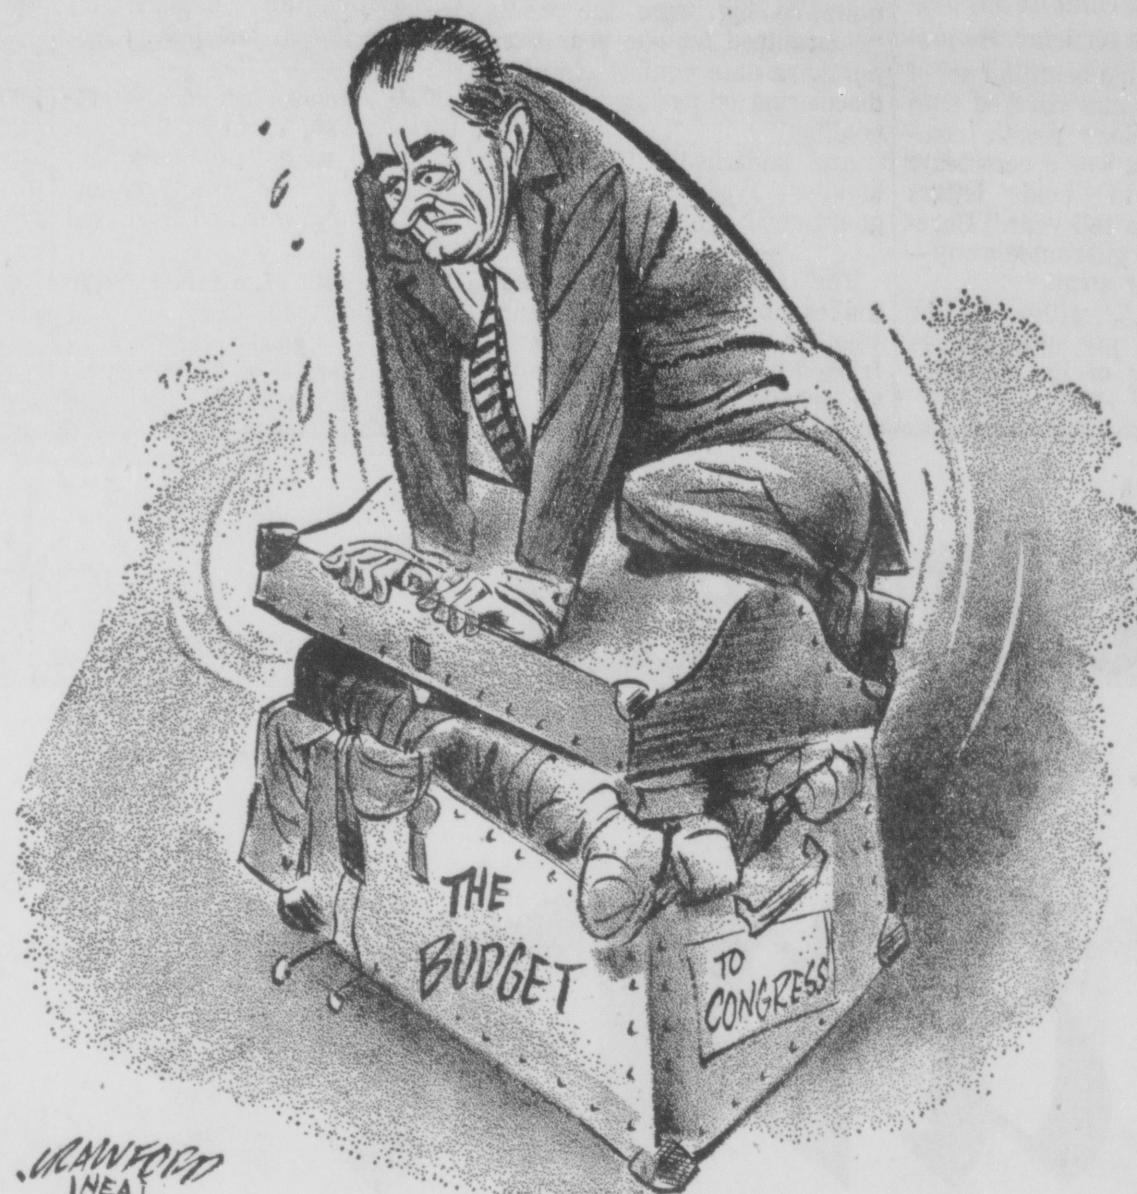

It was a very cold day and the two-year-old decided he would like to have his tricycle which was on the back porch.

Knowing that the metal would be cold and that he was too little to know, his mother said: "Better be careful — it's cold."

The little fellow looked up at her, walked over to where she kept her pot lifters, got two of them, one in each hand, and brought the tricycle in the house holding on to it with the pot lifters.

After all, if you used them when things were hot — why wouldn't they work when something was too cold.—H. L.

Repairing the 'Lifeline'

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — A well-broken-in girdle is the fat girl's "lifeline" to society, so let me tell you how I mend rips in those perforated rubber ones. Through the little air vent holes so that I don't have to put a needle through the rubber, I sew elastic cord or elastic thread in and around the torn area. This elastic "patch" preserves the girdle for further use.—ROSIE

ROSIE — A good girdle is any girl's best friend whether she be fat or thin. — POLLY

DEAR POLLY — When little girls get a ragged tear in the hem of a full skirt or dress, instead of trying to patch it, rip out the hem, fold the tears together lengthwise and stitch them on the wrong side from the bottom of the dress up to the waistline, tapering off as you go. Hem the skirt and all that shows is a fine seam which is hardly noticeable. — MRS. M. G.

DEAR POLLY — Do tell the women who clean out everything and throw away like mad to please hold on to photographs of very old houses and people, newspaper clippings, programs, etc. Let your librarian or local historical society be the judge as to whether they are worthless or not. Many things of great interest to your community may be thoughtlessly discarded. — Mrs. W. E. S.

DEAR POLLY — In a recent paper, your pointer from M.J.L. was for businessmen who travel by air to open the silverware packet and slip it over the tie. I showed this to my husband who also travels a lot by air and he said there is a little button-hole cut in the napkins they use on planes and it is considered good airplane etiquette to button it on your shirt or blouse in case of sudden air bumps. — MRS. R. J. L.

Thank you so much, Mrs. R.J.L. for there must be others like me who have traveled by air and never noticed this slit in the napkins and if we did may never have realized what it was for. We all live and learn. — POLLY

DEAR POLLY — When trying out new shoes at home, put on the shoes and then slip on a pair of men's old socks or anklets over the shoes. The cuff of the sock may have to be slit in order to get it on over the shoe but you can walk and try out the shoes without getting the soles dirty. If not comfortable, they can be returned. — M. M.

Athlete's Foot Fungus Is Routed by Fungicides

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—What does athlete's foot look like? Is there any cure for it?

A—Athlete's foot may appear as small itching blisters that occur singly or in clusters or as areas where the skin is moist as it often is between the toes, where the outer layers of the skin have rubbed off. It is caused by a fungus and is hard to get rid of.

It is essential to keep the affected skin clean and dry and to change socks at least once a day. Chloroxenol, when used regularly, clears up most cases of this disease and helps prevent recurrence. It stimulates growth of healthy skin and helps to evaporate perspiration.

It works better on new infections than on those that have been established for months or years. Other older remedies are still effective. These include undecylenic acid in an aerosol spray and Whitfield's ointment (either full or half strength).

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Q—Is itching in the groin and armpits caused by a fungus or a blood disease? How can I get rid of it?

A—Itching due to a systemic disease such as diabetes, jaundice or anemia would involve the whole body. When the itching is confined to areas that tend to be moist, the cause is usually a fungus. When the di-agnosis has been confirmed, any of the fungicides used for athlete's foot may be used to get rid of it.

Q—My doctor says I have a chalazion. What causes it and what could I do to prevent a recurrence?

A—A chalazion is a cyst of the eyelid. It usually develops slowly and is caused by obstruction of a gland in the lid. It might be thought of as a wen on the lid. In some persons hot compresses will cause the duct of the gland to open and the cyst can be emptied but under these circumstances the cyst will probably recur. The cyst can be removed surgically and if it is removed completely, it will not return.

Q—My doctor has put me on Dilantin because my electroencephalogram showed a tendency to epilepsy although I have never had a seizure. How long can a person safely take this drug? Is it habit-forming?

A—Persons with epilepsy may take maintenance doses of diphenylhydantoin (Dilantin) all of their lives. This dose is the smallest dose they can take and still prevent occurrence of seizures. You would need a very small dose, if any. The drug is not habit-forming.

Q—Is it possible to determine if there is a cancer present anywhere in the body by a 24-hour urinalysis?

A—No.

Beware of Women With Rollers in Their Hair

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A bewildered male, trying to account for the reason so many sweet young things today run around with rollers in their hair, came up with the bright idea that parading and lounging around during the day in hair curlers is a status symbol.

He figures those curlers say plainly, "I'm all dated up for tonight."

He may be right!

But the young men need to be warned. Choose a girl who lounges around a club swimming pool or drives around in your convertible with her hair up in rollers, and you are going to have to look at that sight for the rest of your life.

If you like the girl—but hate the hair rollers—you had better straighten things out before you are married. Forbid her ever to wear them in your sight.

You think it can't be done? Well, I once heard a woman who has been happily married for 25 years say that her husband had never once in his life seen her hair in pin curls or rollers.

When asked why, she ruefully said that her husband (when he was only her husband-to-be) saw a woman whose hair glittered with those metal clips that held pin curls which was, back in the days before rollers. With a shudder he told his fiancée, "Don't ever do that to me. If you put those awful-looking things in your hair, don't ever let me see them." And she never has to this good day.

So the hair-roller or pin-curl problem can be solved before marriage if a man is brave enough to take a stand.

Yet, a young man can be pretty sure that if he doesn't take a stand before marriage, he might as well resign himself to rollers on the pillow beside him; rollers at the breakfast table; and maybe even worse, a wife who wears hair rollers to the supermarket.

Baker Split Stock Profit With Couple

WASHINGTON (AP) — A blonde widow told Senate investigators Tuesday that she and her husband split a $54,889 stock profit with Robert G. Baker even though the former Senate aide invested no money of his own.

Mrs. Gertrude C. (Trudy) Novak testified about the transaction as the Senate Rules Committee opened public hearings in its investigation of the outside business dealings of Baker, who resigned Oct. 7 as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority.

She said that in February 1960, Baker told her and her husband, the late Alfred S. Novak, that "he knew of a stock being available that could be good and asked if we had any money to invest."

Baker said he was "so short of cash" that he didn't have any money to invest in the stock himself, Mrs. Novak related. But, she said, he proposed that the Novaks put up the money, he would get the stock and they would share in any profit.

The arrangement was agreed to, Mrs. Novak said, and "we put up $12,000" that was paid over to Baker for the purchase of stock in the Mortgage Guaranty Insurance Co. of Milwaukee.

Mrs. Novak identified documents showing that 3,000 shares of the stock later were sold for $66,889.86, or a profit of $54,889.86. The profits were split with Baker, she said.

Baker's share of the profit was $27,444.93, and Mrs. Novak said this was paid to him in three checks.

Mrs. Novak was asked if Baker had ever said anything to her and her husband about the possibility of a favorable tax ruling that would make the stock "very profitable."

"No, I had no knowledge of any such ruling," Mrs. Novak replied.

Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., asked why the Novaks had agreed to share any profit in the stock with Baker. He suggested this was rather unusual when Baker had invested no money of his own.

Mrs. Novak said she knew of no reason other than that she and her husband, who was a Washington home builder, had been in other joint ventures with Baker.

Baker, 35, resigned his $19,600-a-year post Oct. 7 after questions were raised about his outside business and financial affairs. He first came to the Senate as a 14-year-old page boy from Pickens, S.C.
